FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE

Help desk and technical support professionals form one of the first lines of defense for any organization.

“

We look for technicians who possess the CompTIA A+ certification. Without that, we're not even granting them an interview.”

ANGEL PINEIRO,
SENIOR VP, SERVICES,
ASI SYSTEM
INTEGRATION, INC.

CompTIA A+® Certification for IT Professionals

CompTIA A+ certified professionals qualify for these careers:

- Technical support specialist
- Field service technician
- IT support technician
- IT support administrator
- IT support specialist

Prove Yourself

Earn your CompTIA A+ certification by passing two CompTIA A+ exams: 220-901 & 220-902. Both exams include multiple-choice and performance-based questions that require you to solve real-world problems. These exams demonstrate your skills and knowledge in:

- Security: Supporting and securing access to data by properly using authentication, access control and encryption for an organization. Help desk and technical support professionals form one of the first lines of defense for any organization.
- Networking: Applying core concepts and protocols such as IPv4, IPv6, DHCP, and subnet mask to set up and support wired and wireless networks.
- Operating Systems: Working with mobile, server and traditional operating systems from Android and iOS to Windows and Linux.
- IT Operations: Utilizing the basics of virtualization, cloud computing, desktop imaging and deployment to support today's IT infrastructures.
- Troubleshooting: Following and using decision trees for diagnosing, resolving and documenting common hardware and software issues across a variety of devices.
- Technical Support: Applying principles of customer service to help resolve IT issues.

PREPARING TODAY'S IT PROS FOR TOMORROW'S TECHNOLOGY

SENIOR DIRECTOR,
PRODUCT
DEVELOPMENT,
CompTIA

TIP: A+ certified individuals recommend concentrating on one exam at a time. Whether you prefer to begin with 901 or 902, first train and take one exam, then move on to the next exam.
